Board Requirements

- You must attend board meetings as needed.
- Sometimes weekly correspondence through e-mail to stay on top of all issues. Board members should respond to all e-mails sent by Performance Management Company or other board members in a timely fashion. Many times, time is of the essence and input is needed quickly.
- Make decisions based on the association, protecting and enforcing the covenants for the betterment of the community.
- Board members must have voting rights (which means you must be current on your dues and stay current)
- Serving on the board requires absolute confidentiality and integrity. They are a necessity to protect individual homeowners in our association and protect any legal actions the board is taking, etc.
